

I. Multiple Choices

1. In terms of territory, the United States is the _____ country in the world.

- A. First
- B. Second
- C. Third
- D. Fourth

答案: D

2. How many colonies were established along the east coast of America by Great Britain?

- A. 12
- B. 13
- C. 14
- D. 15

答案: B

3. When is the independence day of the US?

- A. June 14th
- B. June 4th
- C. July 4th
- D. July 14th

答案: C

4. From the end of the Civil War to the 1920s, large numbers of new immigrants to the United States came from _____ and _____ Europe.

- A. Southern, Western
- B. Eastern, Northern
- C. Northern, Western
- D. Southern, Eastern

1st(1680-1770):from Great British,Germany,France,Ireland
2nd(1820-1890):from northwestern Europe
3rd(1980-1930):from southeast Europe
4th(1960-):from Latin American,Asia

答案: D

5. American society is becoming increasingly_____.

- A. unicultural
- B. bicultural
- C. tricultural
- D. multicultural

答案: D

6. During the Great Depression, a smaller number of people immigrated to the United States because_____.

- A. America banned immigration.
- B. America did not welcome immigrants anymore.
- C. America did not have much opportunity to offer to new immigrants.

1st(1680-1770):from Great British,Germany,France,Ireland
2nd(1820-1890):from northwestern Europe
3rd(1980-1930):from southeast Europe
4th(1960-):from Latin American,Asia

D. America hated immigrants.

答案: C

7. Since the 1960s, more and more people have fled the ____ and ____ in Asia and Latin America in the hope of making a better living in the United States.

A. famine, political persecution

B. natural disaster, dictatorship

C. earthquake, flood

D. poverty, wars

答案: D

8. Many American-born Chinese (ABC), for example, are often compared to bananas because ____.

A. they look like banana

B. they enjoy eating bananas

C. they prefer banana to other fruits

D. they look yellow outside, but deep in their hearts they think like white Americans

答案: D

9. The U.S. lies in ____ North America, with Canada to the north, Mexico to the south, the Atlantic to its ____, and the Pacific to its ____.

A. northern, east, west

B. central, east, west

C. southern, west, east

D. western, west, east

答案: B

10. The continental United States has ____ states.

A. 50

B. 49

C. 48

D. 35

total states : 50

continental states : 48

答案: A

11. The state of ____ is the largest in area of all the U.S. states.

A. Alaska

B. Hawaii

C. Texas

D. Florida

答案: A

12. The longest river in the U.S. is ____.

A. the Missouri River

B. the Ohio River

C. the Mississippi River

D. the Lake Itasca

答案: C

13. _____ is known as the “father of waters” to American Indians.

A. The River Thames

B. The Missouri River

C. The Tay River

D. The Mississippi River

答案: D

Great British : 大不列颠岛

14. Strictly speaking, Great Britain comprises _____.

A. England, Scotland, and Northern Ireland

B. England, Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland

C. England, Scotland, and Wales

D. Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland

答案: C

15. On formal occasions, _____ is used, but in everyday conversation, _____ is a widely accepted name for the nation.

A. Great Britain/Britain

B. the United Kingdom/UK

C. England/Great Britain

D. the United Kingdom/Britain

答案: D

16. The Thames is located _____

A. in the north

B. in the west

C. in the south

D. in the east

答案: C

17. England is often talked about in terms of a _____ / _____ divide, which is cultural, economic, and political.

A. east/west

B. north/south

C. west/north

D. east/south

答案: B

18. England has a higher proportion of wealth and natural resources than _____.

A. Scotland

B. Welsh

- C. Northern Ireland
D. the rest of the UK

答案: D

讽刺

19. Southerners are caricatured by Northerners as both "soft" and unsociable, largely because _____.
- A. people from the southeast are always seen as drinking fast, job-minded, hanging out with friends, and having an easy time.
- B. people from the southeast are oftentimes seen as driving fast, playing around, kindly, and always busy.
- C. people from the southeast are occasionally seen as running fast, money-minded, approachable, and enjoying life.
- D. people from the southeast are sometimes seen as fast-living, career-minded, unfriendly, and more comfortably off.

答案: D

20. In Scotland are located some of the most important _____ and development areas.
- A. trade zones
- B. scenic spots
- C. science parks
- D. enterprise zones

答案: D

21. Welsh retains a unique cultural, social, and economic development, notably its national _____, Welsh and a devoluted Welsh Assembly.
- A. music
- B. education
- C. language
- D. sports

移交

答案: C

22. Northern Island is sometimes known simply as "_____".
- A. the six counties
- B. the six countries
- C. the six nations
- D. the six states

答案: A

23. The English people are descendants of _____.
- A. Celts
- B. Anglo-Saxons
- C. Romans
- D. Danes

答案: B

24. What is not the branch of American government?

- A、 the judiciary
- B、 the representative
- C、 the legislature
- D、 the executive

答案: B

25. How many judges are there in the American Supreme Court?

- A、 6
- B、 7
- C、 8
- D、 9

答案: D

26. Which of the following is the only branch that can make federal law and levy federal taxes?

- A、 The President
- B、 The executive
- C、 The Legislative
- D、 The Judicial

答案: C

27. Which of the following is not guaranteed in the Bill of Rights?

- A、 The freedom of religion
- B、 The freedom of speech and of the press
- C、 The right to own weapon if one wishes
- D、 The freedom of searching a person's home by police

答案: D

28. Which department is the branch of interpreting laws in the United States?

- A、 The Judicial
- B、 The executive
- C、 The President
- D、 The Legislature

答案: A

29. Which of the following is not a power of the president?

- A、 power to issue regulations and directives regarding the work of the federal departments
- B、 power to make laws Not
- C、 authority to appoint federal judges when vacancies occur
- D、 veto any bill passed by Congress

答案: B 否决

30. Americans feel quite _____ to criticize their political leaders in ways they see fit.

- A. comfortable

- B. necessary
- C. ready
- D. unrestricted

答案: D

31. The essence of the rule of law is _____.

- A. laws should be applied to all people without biases, regardless of wealth or social status.
- B. laws should be biased when applied to different people based on wealth or social status.
- C. laws should be partial when applied to different people according to wealth or social status.
- D. laws should be applied impartially only when the parties involved are equal in both wealth and social status.

答案: A

32. Sovereignty, by definition, means the greatest authority to command _____.

- A. the military force
- B. the government
- C. the country
- D. all the above

答案: D

33. In American politics, compromise is believed to be not only _____, but also _____.

- A. unnecessary, undesirable
- B. necessary, desirable
- C. unimportant, unavoidable
- D. insignificant, useless

答案: B

34. The most desired result of a compromise is a _____ outcome.

- A. no-lose
- B. one-lose
- C. no-win
- D. win-win

答案: D

35. American government is characterized by _____.

- A. federal system
- B. confederate system
- C. unitary system
- D. centralized system

答案: A

36. In a federal country, power is divided between _____.

- A. local and state governments
- B. local, state and national governments

- C. state governments
- D. local governments

答案: B

37. The U.S. Constitution came into effect in_____.

- A.1787
- B.1789
- C.1791
- D.1793

答案: B

38. The Constitution of the United States_____.

- A. gives the most power to Congress
- B. gives the most power to the President
- C. tries to give each branch enough power to balance the others
- D. gives the most power to the Supreme Court

答案: C

39. In the U.S., the Bill of Rights_____.

- A. defines the rights of Congress and the rights of the President constitution
- B. guarantees citizens of the United States specific individual rights and freedom
- C. is part of the Declaration of Independence amendment
- D. has no relationship with the Constitution

答案: B

40. The terms for a Senator and Representative are ____ and ____ years respectively.

- A. two, four
- B. two, three
- C. two, six
- D. six, two

答案: D

41. The emblem of the Democratic Party is ____ .

- A、 Donkey double D
- B、 Elephant Republican Party
- C、 bear
- D、 eagle

答案: A

42. In the U.K., which of the following is not right to describe the Prime Minister?

- A. the head of the country the King/Queen
- B. the leader of the Cabinet
- C. the leader of the Party in power
- D. a member of parliament

答案：A

43. The party that has the majority of seats in _____ will form the government.

- A. the House of Commons
- B. the Cabinet
- C. the House of Lords
- D. the Royal Family

答案：A

44. By whom is a “vote of no confidence” decided?

- A. the House of Commons
- B. the House of Lords
- C. the Prime Minister
- D. the Queen

答案：A

45. Which of the following is TRUE about life peers?

- A. They are not from aristocratic families. 终身贵族：被册封的而不是世袭的
- B. Their children can inherit their title.
- C. They sit in the House of Commons.
- D. They can be removed.

答案：A

实用主义

46. The policies of the Conservative Party are characterized by pragmatism and _____.

- A. nationalization of enterprises
- B. social reform
- C. a belief in individualism
- D. government intervention

答案：C

47. The Labor Party affected British society greatly in that it _____.

- A. set up the National Health Service
- B. abolished the old tax system
- C. enhanced the economic development
- D. improved public transportation

答案：A

48. In Britain, the general election is held at least every _____ years.

- A. Three
- B. Four
- C. Five
- D. Six

答案：C

49. Which of the following is NOT the function of the Queen of the UK?

- A. She is the head of the government.
- B. She is the head of the armed forces.
- C. She governs the government.
- D. Her role is ceremonial and formal.

答案: C

50. Which of the following about the House of Commons is NOT true?

- A. Members of Parliament elect the Cabinet.
- B. Members of Parliament can be elected for limitless times.
- C. Members of Parliament are expected to represent the interests of the public.
- D. Most Members of Parliament belong to the major political parties.

答案: A

51. In reality, _____ is at the center of the British political system.

- A. The Cabinet
- B. The House of Lords
- C. The House of Commons
- D. The Privy Council

答案: A

52. The importance of the British monarchy can be seen in its effect on _____.

- A. passing bills
- B. advising the government
- C. political parties
- D. public attitude

答案: D

53. In early childhood, Americans are advised to see themselves as _____.

- A. a member of a group
- B. a dependent person
- C. a self-reliant and responsible individual
- D. a follower

答案: C

54. In building their new nation, American founding fathers explicitly _____ titles of nobility or aristocracy.

- A. rejected
- B. kept
- C. accepted
- D. inherited

答案: A

4、Americans regard as heroes those individuals who "stand out from the crowd".

What does the phrase "stand out from the crowd" mean?

- A. step out of the crowd
- B. leave the crowd
- C. outstanding among a group of people
- D. run out of the crowd

答案: C

55. In American value system, if individualism means _____, collectivism implies _____.

- A. equality, freedom
- B. freedom, equality
- C. rights, protection
- D. protection, rights

答案: B

56. In social life, Americans address each other in their first names, because _____.

- A. they want to be friendly and informal to one another.
- B. they find it too bothersome to use both first and last names.
- C. they don't like other people to know their last name.
- D. they think first name is usually better than last name.

答案: A

57. Americans believe that everyone, no matter how unfortunate, deserves some basic levels of _____.

- A. attention
- B. consideration
- C. admiration
- D. respect

答案: D

58. By "the pursuit of happiness", Americans largely mean _____.

- A. the pursuit of material comforts
- B. the pursuit of wealth
- C. the pursuit of honor and glory
- D. A and B

答案: D

59. When many Americans say, "history does not matter", what do they mean?

- A. They mean Americans have no respect for history.
- B. They mean since the United States has a short history, it is of little importance.
- C. They mean history only tells what happened in the past; what is really important is the future.
- D. They mean Americans do not trust their history.

答案: C

60. Americans are generally rather ____ with people they see as passively accepting conditions that are less than desirable.

- A. impatient
- B. patient
- C. satisfied
- D. dissatisfied

答案: A

61. "Values" are ideas about_____.

- A. ideas and beliefs that people who grow up in the same culture share most of the time.
- B. the way things are.
- C. the unquestioned standards about people, life
- D. what is right and wrong, desirable and undesirable, normal and abnormal, proper and improper.

对立面

答案: D

62. There are no titles of nobility in the United States today because_____.

- A. no one likes aristocrats.
- B. the church does not allow it.
- C. people prefer the word freedom
- D. they are forbidden by the Constitution.

答案: D

63. The price that Americans pay for their individual freedom is_____.

- A. self-reliance
- B. hard work
- C. competition
- D. changes

答案: A

64. In Great Britain, anyone without a sense of irony or a sense of humor is often viewed as being a boring person, unable to_____.

- A. make a company good
- B. make friends
- C. establish a good company
- D. enjoy company life

答案: B

65. The British see irony as a form of free _____ for body, mind and spirit.

- A. expression
- B. display
- C. outlet
- D. medication

答案: D

2、The British value humor quite a lot, particularly in their _____.

- A. private life
- B. political life
- C. religious life
- D. inter-personal relationship

答案: D

66. The old English saying "An Englishman's word is his bond" means _____.

- A. Once a promise is made, an Englishman is expected to keep his word.
- B. Once a promise is made, an Englishman's word is like his bond.
- C. Once a promise is made, an Englishman regards his word as his bond.
- D. Once a promise is made, an Englishman treats his word like his bond.

答案: A

67. For some Britons, the spirit of "fair play" can be best expressed in the national game of ____.

- A. football
- B. rugby
- C. cricket
- D. baseball

答案: C

68. To people from outside Great Britain, the best known quality of the British, and in particular of the English, is "_____".

- A. shyness
- B. reserve
- C. frankness
- D. talkativeness

答案: B

69. Which of these statements is FALSE?

- A. American high school students have the choice of going to a free public school or a private one where they must pay tuition.
- B. The American education system is based on strong principles of equality of opportunity-all students should have an equal opportunity to get a good education.
- ~~C. After twelve years of school, American students receive a bachelor's degree diploma at graduation.~~
- D. American education seeks to turn out "well-rounded" students.

答案: C

70. Which of these statements is TRUE?

- A. Most of the money to pay for American public schools comes from local taxes.
- B. Religious schools that serve middle-class students receive money from the national government, but elite private schools do not.

C. American schools attach the greatest importance to developing students' academic skills.

D. Americans view their public school system as a vehicle to instill knowledge in children.

答案: A

71. American schools can best be understood as a kind of _____ institutions that reflect the basic values and fundamental principles of the United States.

A. political

B. economic

C. educational

D. social

答案: D

72. The American assumption about equalitarianism suggests that everyone in the United States has access to institutions of higher learning as long as he/she is _____.

A. financially qualified

B. academically qualified

C. politically qualified

D. religiously qualified

答案: B

73. In many instances, American students do not face truly demanding educational requirements until they seek a _____ degree.

A. undergraduate

B. professional

C. high school

D. graduate

答案: D

2. In principle, the goal of the American educational system is to provide a _____ education for every youngster.

A. basic

B. broad

C. long

D. well-tailored

答案: B

74. The quota system in U.S. university admissions policy is designed to _____ differences in social backgrounds as well as those of ethnic or racial origin in the university setting.

A. remove

B. eliminate

C. reduce

D. change

答案: C

75. Generally speaking, education has been seen by most Americans as a way of "bettering oneself". The phrase "bettering oneself" most probably means ____.

- A. become a better person
- B. find a better job
- C. live a better life
- D. get a better education

答案: C

76. The responsibility of US Department of Education includes all the following except ____.

- A. gathering information
- B. providing advice
- C. helping finance certain educational programs
- D. making policy for all schools and universities

答案: D

77. Higher education in the United States began with the founding of ____.

- A. Yale University
- B. Harvard College
- C. Princeton University
- D. Massachusetts Institute of Technology

答案: B

78. After completing four-year study in a college, the student usually can earn ____.

- A. a university degree
- B. a graduate degree
- C. a bachelor's degree
- D. a master's degree

答案: C

79. British education has been ranked among the world's best on the ground of its renowned ____.

- A. long history, classic study, and English language
- B. scientific research, literature program, and outstanding faculty
- C. education quality, the quality of its graduates, and scientific research 质量好
- D. the number of Nobel Prize winners, long history, and creative teaching methods

答案: C

80. Full-time education is compulsory for all children in the UK between ages ____.

- A. five and fifteen
- B. six and sixteen
- C. five and sixteen
- D. six and seventh

答案: C

81. Among the main state schools in Britain, the most prestigious ones are _____.

- A. technical schools
- B. grammar schools
- C. modern schools
- D. schools in hospitals or youth custody centers

答案: B

82. "Prep schools" in Britain are designed to prepare children for _____.

- A. university education
- B. professional education
- C. special education
- D. secondary education

答案: D

83. In Britain, public schools are _____.

- A. state-funded
- B. government-sponsored
- C. private-run
- D. public-owned

答案: C

84. Public schools in Britain are largely for all the following, except _____.

- A. children from affluent families
- B. children with gifts but without means
- C. children from the royal family
- D. children whose parents have an "Old School Tie"

答案: B

85. In the past, the _____ Party always made a great fuss about abolishing the public schools.

- A. Conservative
- B. Green
- C. Liberty
- D. Labor

答案: D

86. To be admitted to the Open University, one need _____.

- A. some educational qualifications
- B. no educational qualifications
- C. General Certificate of Education-Advanced
- D. General National Vocational Qualifications

答案: B

87. What kind of secondary schools now receives the largest number of students?

- A. Grammar schools

- B. Technical schools
- C. Comprehensive schools
- D. Secondary modern schools

答案: C

88. Open University communicates with its students mainly by _____.

- A. radio
- B. television programs
- C. local study programs
- D. all of above

答案: D

89. If a student wants to go to university in Britain, he will take the exam called _____.

- A. General Certificate of Secondary Education
- B. General Certificate of Education-Advanced
- C. the common entrance exam
- D. General National Vocational Qualifications

答案: B

90. Eton School belongs to _____.

- A. grammar school
- B. secondary modern school
- C. public school
- D. comprehensive school

答案: C

91. Which one in the following is not proper to describe the American family values?

- A. Individual freedom.
- B. Belief in equality.
- C. Personal independence.
- D. Formal and strict relations between parents and children.

答案: D

92. Traditionally, the American family has been a _____ family.

- A. hierarchy
- B. nuclear
- C. traditional
- D. blended

答案: B

93. Grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousin and others are usually regarded as _____ in the United States.

- A. friends
- B. family

- C. relatives
D. companions
答案: C

94. During the 1950s, the traditional American family included_____.

- A. a husband, wife, their children and their parents
B. a husband, wife, their children and their sisters and brothers
C. a husband, wife, their children and their uncles and aunts
D. a husband, wife and their children

答案: D

95. In the traditional American family, the wife would do all the following except_____.

- A. take care of the house and the children
B. go to an evening school
C. socialize with other women in the neighborhood
D. participate in a parent-teacher organization at the children's school or volunteer in the community

答案: B

96. Following the "women's liberation movement", traditional careers open to American women include all the following except_____.

- A. teacher
B. priest
C. nurse
D. secretary

答案: B

2. American society accepts the idea that young people of both genders need to "find themselves". The phrase "find themselves" most probably means_____.

- A. find where they are
B. find who they are
C. find what they want to be
D. find where they want to go

答案: C

97. Americans view the family as a group whose primary purpose is to advance the happiness of _____ rather than_____.

- A. the whole family, each individual member
B. children, parents
C. parents, children
D. each individual member, the whole family

答案: D

98. In cases where wives are earning more than their husbands, it is becoming more and more common for men to _____.

- A. stay at home to parent their child or children
- B. get a second job in order to make more money
- C. quit their job and start to enjoy life
- D. leave home and seek a divorce

答案: A

99. The family in Great Britain often serves as a _____ of social and cultural changes.

- A. direction
- B. barometer 晴雨计
- C. prediction
- D. yardstick

答案: B

100. Some aspects of extended family are coming back in Britain, because _____.

- A. the British miss extended family lifestyle
- B. the British find the nuclear family too boring
- C. the British want to recover their traditional family values
- D. many young Britons are not able to buy property or pay childcare when they get married 没钱

答案: D

101. In a typical traditional British family, family members were usually composed of _____.

- A. husband, wife, three or four children
- B. grandparents, husband, wife, two or three children
- C. husband, wife, two or three children
- D. aunts or uncles, husband, wife, one or two children

答案: C

102. The 1848 Factory Act, by limiting women to a ten-hour working day, was designed to _____.

- A. help women keep fit
- B. protect women from overwork
- C. make sure that women would have enough time left to perform their motherly and wifely duties.
- D. maintain efficiency in their work

答案: C

103. _____, the symbolic or ideological importance of the conventional family unit in Britain still remains extremely strong.

- A. Despite its minority status
- B. As more and more Britons marry young
- C. Although family in Britain now comes in many forms
- D. In spite of the strong influence of modern marriage

答案: A

104. The British Queen is sometimes referred to as “_____”.

- A. the mother of England
- B. the mother of Scotland
- C. the mother of Wales
- D. the mother of the commonwealth

答案: D

宗法的

105. The two-parent, patriarchal family continues to be regarded by many Britons as _____.

- A. the least important of all social institutions
- B. the most necessary of all social institutions
- C. the least necessary of all social institutions
- D. the most important of all social institutions

答案: D

106. Which one of the following is not a change in the British attitude toward marriage?

- A. There has been a continuous decline in registered marriage in recent years.
- B. There has been a steady increase in marital breakdown over the last few decades.
- C. There are fewer long-term cohabitants in Britain.
- D. Single-parent families are now growing in number.

答案: C

107. Americans believe in the principle of “_____”.

- A. work hard and work easy
- B. work hard and play easy
- C. play hard and work easy
- D. work hard and play hard

答案: D

108. Organized sports are seen by Americans as an inspiring example of equality of _____ in action, where people of different races and social backgrounds get an equal chance to compete and excel.

- A. result
- B. consequence
- C. opportunity
- D. income

答案: C

109. Americans are interested in sports not so much to participate in them as _____ as to watch them as _____.

- A. spectators, players
- B. players, spectators
- C. fans, audiences
- D. audiences, fans

答案: B

110. Football is so popular in America that it takes “a man of stern stuff” to resist a televised football game. The phrase “a man of stern stuff” most probably means _____.

- A. a man of strong determination
- B. a man of strong material
- C. a man of strong health
- D. a man of strong personality

答案: A

111. What is the essence of recreation as opposed to organized sports?

- A. competition
- B. winning
- C. relaxation
- D. rivalry

答案: C

112. Americans are now changing their lifestyle based on “_____” to one based on “_____”.

- A. “work hard and play hard”, “we play before we work”
- B. “work easy and play hard”, “we work before we play”
- C. “work hard and play easy”, “we play and work at the same time”
- D. “work hard and play hard”, “we work before we play”

答案: D

113. Which is not a good reason to explain that sports are so popular in the United States?

- A. Public sports facilities are available in most parts of the country
- B. Americans have an excessive desire to compete and win
- C. Sports activities are seen as a way of teaching social values
- D. Americans intended to participate in spontaneous and enjoyable activities

答案: D

114. _____ is the most important cultural exchange medium in Britain.

- A. television
- B. radio
- C. computer
- D. cell-phone

答案: A

115. Which of the following is NOT a popular sport in Britain?

- A. basketball
- B. rugby
- C. football
- D. cricket

答案: A

116. In the U.K., the minimum age for entering a public bar for consuming alcoholic drinks is _____.

- A. 14
- B. 16
- C. 17
- D. 18

答案: D

117. In Britain, rugby is the great sport of the British _____, while football is for the British _____.

- A. working-class/middle class
- B. middle class/working class
- C. middle class/upper class
- D. upper class/working class

答案: B

哑剧

118. Pantomimes constitute an important aspect of British cultural experience especially during Christmas for children.

- A. Thanksgiving Day
- B. New Year's Day
- C. Easter Day
- D. Christmas

答案: D

119. With the increasing openness and democratization in British society, many sports were transformed from being upper-class to something available to the majority of the population, including _____.

- A. women and black sportspeople
- B. black and disabled sportspeople
- C. Asian and disabled sportspeople
- D. Both A and C

答案: D

120. According to a study published by the Office for National Statistics, the most popular sports among the four-fifths of British men are in the order of _____.

- A. walking, snooker, cycling, and swimming
- B. walking, cycling, swimming, and snooker
- C. cycling, snooker, walking, and swimming
- D. swimming, walking, snooker, and cycling

snooker: 台球的一种

答案: A

121. "Generation X" often prefers _____.

- A. bank cashiers to cash machines
- B. socializing to computers

C .coffee houses to cyber cafes

D. virtual reality to reality

答案: D

122. Which of the following statements is NOT true about National Lottery?

A. Britain was the last country in Europe to introduce National Lottery. 国家彩票

B. Everyone has a bet every week.

C. National Lottery is an important social and cultural phenomenon in Britain.

D. The introduction of National Lottery is welcomed and praised by people from all walks of life in Britain.

答案: D

123. Social security is the nearly universal ____ program for Americans, with about 92 percent of people aged 65 and over receiving benefits.

A. employment

B. compensation

C. healthcare

D. retirement

答案: D

124. In the U.S., social welfare, as the term suggests, is meant to provide aid to _____.

A. the jobless and the poor

B. the needy and poor

C. the poor and the single-parent family

D. the needy and the sick

答案: B

125. Until 1996, the main federal welfare programs in the USA consisted of all the following except _____.

A. Medicaid

B. Food Stamps

C. Aid to Families with Dependent Children

D. Medicare

答案: D

126. With the passage of the new law (called Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, TANF), welfare recipients have a _____ lifetime limit on welfare benefits.

A. two-year

B. three-year

C. four-year

D. five-year

答案: D

127. As a voluntary services provider, the National Coalition for the Homeless (NCH) focuses its efforts mainly on the following four areas, namely_____.

房子、经济、医疗、权益

- A. housing justice, economic justice, health care justice, and civil rights
- B. economic justice, health care justice, housing justice, and political justice
- C. civil rights, housing justice, economic justice, and educational justice
- D. health care justice, housing justice, economic justice, and social justice

答案: A

128. American doctors, both in the public and private sectors earn incomes _____the national average.

- A. a little bit above
- B. much
- C. a great deal above
- D. somewhat

答案: C

129. In the United States, public housing largely refers to federal, state and local governments' efforts to provide housing for the people_____.

- A. who are either too young to buy property or too poor to rent apartments
- B. who are either unemployed or come from single-parent families
- C. who are either too sick to work or too old to take care of themselves 没钱买房
- D. who are able to neither buy property nor pay for high-rent apartments

答案: D

130. Which of the following is not the main areas covered by social security?

- A. The old age, survivors, disability, and health insurance program
- B. Medicare
- C. Unemployment Compensation
- D. Aid to Families with Dependent Children

答案: D

131. The British social services system primarily consists of _____.

- A. the National Health Service
- B. the personal social services
- C. social security
- D. all the above

答案: D

132. It was _____ that introduced a series of legislative and policy reforms in post-WWII Britain, leading to the establishment of an effective and comprehensive social services network nationwide.

- A. the Liberal Party
- B. the Conservative Party
- C. the Labor Party
- D. the Liberal Democrats

答案: C

133. What does “welfare state” mean? 所有人

- A. It means that the state provides "health, comfort and freedom from want" to a vast majority of the community, paying the cost out of taxes of various kinds.
- B. It means the state provides "health, comfort and freedom from want" to every member of the community, paying the cost out of taxes of various kinds.
- C. It means that the state provides "health, comfort and freedom from want" to a small majority of the community, paying the cost out of taxes of various kinds.
- D. It means that the state provides "health, comfort and freedom from want" to a big majority of the community, paying the cost out of taxes of various kinds.

答案: B

134. Before the Industrial Revolution, welfare was the responsibility of _____ or _____.

- A. local communities/local governments
- B. local governments/local religious organizations
- C. local communities/local religious organizations
- D. local governments/local political organizations

答案: C

135. The Poor Relief Act 1601 for relief of the poor was enacted by _____.

- A. the Parliament of England
- B. the Parliament of Scotland
- C. the Parliament of Wales
- D. the Parliament of Northern Ireland

答案: A

136. What does the “deserving poor” refer to? 不可控经济因素的受害者

- A. It refers to those who were so poor that they deserved relief aid from the state.
- B. It refers to those who were willing to work hard but unable to get a job.
- C. It refers to those who were able to work but became victims of economic circumstances beyond their control.
- D. It refers to those who had worked hard before but then lost all their money.

答案: C

137. Prior to the passage of the New Poor Law of 1834, conditions in workhouses were made harsh to _____.

- A. punish the poor people working there
- B. help the poor people learn to learn how to endure hardships
- C. discourage the poor people from claiming
- D. prepare the poor people to compete for tough jobs in the job market

答案: C

138. To a great extent, the British modern welfare state began to _____ after the general election of 1906, when the Labor Party became more influential and powerful.

- A. take off
- B. take a great leap forward
- C. take on
- D. take shape 成形

答案: D

139. The five "Giant Evils" identified by the Beveridge Report in British society were:

- A. filth, squalor, ignorance, want, and idleness
- B. disorder, ignorance, want, idleness, and disease
- 肮脏 C. squalor, ignorance, want, idleness, and disease
- D. pollution, squalor, ignorance, want, and idleness

答案: C

140. It is on the basis of _____ that Britain has established its modern welfare state.

- A. the Poor Relief Act of 1601
- B. the Poor Law of 1832
- C. the New Poor Law of 1834
- D. the Beveridge Report

答案: D

II. True of False

1. As "a nation of immigrants" the United States continues to take in more immigrants than any other country in the world.

答案: 对

2. As the metaphor of "melting pot" suggests, the United States is quite homogenous

答案: 错

3. Despite their deep ethnic roots, Americans have more things in common than what makes them different from one another.

答案: 对

4. From the early settlement of North American colonies to the late 19th century, most of the immigrants hailed from Eastern and Southern Europe.

答案: 错

2nd southeastern Europe

5. The Chinese emigrants went to the United States in the mid-19th century in order to make their fortune there.

答案: 对

6. Between 1846 and 1851, more than a million Irish emigrated to America in order to escape political and religious persecution in Ireland.

The Great Famine

答案： 错

7. What makes the American Dream unique is that it is within easy reach for all immigrants.

答案： 错

8. The process of assimilation is in fact the process of Americanization.

答案： 错

9. Since the 1970s, bilingual education in Welsh has become firmly established and about half of the Welsh population speak both languages.

答案： 错

10. Less than two-thirds of the population in Northern Ireland are descendants of Scots or English settlers who crossed to northeastern Ireland mainly in the 17th century.

答案： 对

11. Regardless of all the changes brought about by waves of immigrants from around the world, the Celtic, Anglo-Saxon, Nordic, and Norman French cultures still remain at the center of the "British way of life".

答案： 对

12. Britain remained a predominantly white country well into the 1980s.

答案： 错

America:?

13. The racial and ethnic communities of the new arrivals are evenly spread across Great Britain, creating a good environment for national cohesion.

答案： 错

14. Most of the racial and ethnic communities in Britain do not appear to have anything in common with the majority "white" culture of the UK.

答案： 对

15. Racial and ethnic groups tend to be concentrated in large cities in Great Britain.

答案： 对

in fact

16. English is the de facto official language of the UK.

答案： 对

17. The fact that English has become the main international language of business as well as the most widely taught second language around the world has nothing to do with Great Britain as an empire from the 17th century to the mid-20th century.

答案： 错

18. There is a great variety of English spoken in the UK.

答案：对

19. In Britain, a high degree of social significance has been attached to English speech.

答案：对

侮辱

20. In Britain, dialect speakers became socially stigmatized as rustic, provincial, poor, and uneducated.

答案：对

21. England has a separate administration, different legal and educational systems as well as its Presbyterian national church.

答案：错

namely island

22. Ireland is the second largest of the British Isles.

答案：对

1st: Great British

23. All Britons want to see Great Britain move in the direction of multiculturalism.

答案：错

Briton: a native or inhabitant of Great Britain

24. Britain is situated in Western Europe.

答案：对

25. Edinburgh is the largest city in Scotland.

答案：错

Glasgow

Edinburgh is the capital of Scotland and a significant cultural and historical center

26. Britain has a cold maritime climate

答案：错

temperate marinetime

27. The Thames River runs through the famous city of Liverpool.

答案：错

牛津 (Oxford)、雷丁 (Reading)、
温莎 (Windsor)、伦敦 (London)
亨利-昂-泰晤士 (Henley-on-Thames)

28. The English, Scots, and Welsh are all descendants of the Celts.

答案：错

29. The Severn River is the longest river in Britain, which originates in Wales and flows through western England.

答案：对

30. Checks and Balances is a system for limiting the powers of the House of Representatives

答案：错

31. The main duty of Congress is to make laws.

答案：对

checks and balance:

1.the Legislative: congress made up of the Senate and the House of Representatives

2.the Executive:president with vice-president,cabinet

3.the Judicial:Supreme Court with ...

32. The most heavily populated districts have more senators than the small states.

答案: 错 every state two

33. The U.S. President can appoint any federal judges as he wishes.

答案: 错

34. The Constitution of the US is the oldest written Constitution in the world today.

答案: 对

35. George Washington, Benjamin Franklin and Abraham Lincoln were regarded as the founding fathers of the United States of America.

答案: 错

36. The US Constitution set up a federal system with a strong central government.

答案: 对

37. The President has the authority to appoint federal judges, and all such court appointments are subject to confirmation by the House of Representatives

答案: 错

senate

38. Americans have to join a political party in order to vote or be a candidate or public office.

答案: 错

39. American youngsters are taught in their school that they live under the rule of men, not the rule of law.

答案: 错

40. Americans believe that the person holding the highest office in the nation, or the person possessing the largest amount of wealth, can be treated differently when they are caught committing crime.

答案: 错

41. Most Americans tend to view compromise positively if no fundamental principles are betrayed.

答案: 对

42. The Bill of Rights was part of the U.S. Constitution when it was drafted, rather than amended after it was drafted.

答案: 错

43. The President of the United States can serve two terms at most.

答案: 对

44. Like the President, a Senator or a Representative can serve no more than two terms at most.

答案：错

45. The decisions made by the Supreme Court cannot be overturned by anyone.

答案：对

46. There are only two political parties in the United States.

答案：错

47. In general, the Democratic Party is in favor of a more active role for the federal government to play, while the Republican Party is in favor of a more limited role.

答案：对

48. Interest groups can play both a positive and negative role in American politics.

答案：对

49. The Bill of Rights was written into the Constitution in 1787.

答案：错

50. The form of the American government is based on three main principles: federalism, the separation of powers and respect for the Constitution and the rule of law.

答案：对

51. The U.S. Congress consists of two houses: the House of Commons and the House of Lords.

答案：错

52. The Democratic Party is conservative in terms of its ideology.

答案：错

总统大选

53. The American presidential campaigns adhere to the "winner-takes-all" practice.

答案：对

54. Britain, like the U.S. has a written constitution.

答案：错

55. Common laws are laws which have been established through common practices in the courts.

答案：对

56. The three major parties in Britain are: the Conservative Party, the Social Democratic Party, and the Labor Party.

答案：错

57. The UK Parliament can call an election sooner than five years.

答案：对

58. The Liberal Democratic Party evolved out of its predecessor, the Liberal Party.

答案: 错

59. Britain is a two-party system, because the two major parties control the government by turn.

答案: 错

60. The oldest institution of government in Britain is the Monarchy.

答案: 对

61. British citizens don't have to fulfill their jury service as long as they don't want to.

答案: 错

62. Strictly speaking, the Queen is part of the Parliament.

答案: 对

63. The Parliament of the UK has no power to change the terms of the Constitution.

答案: 错

64. In theory, the monarch has enormous powers; but in reality, she is supposed to reign but not rule.

统治但是无权

答案: 对

65. The House of Lords consists of the Lords Spiritual, who are selected by the queen or king.

答案: 错

66. Britain has no written Constitution.

答案: 对

67. Strictly speaking, the UK Parliament today consists of the King, the House of Lords and the House of Commons.

答案: 对

68. In reality, the Prime Minister is the most powerful person in Britain.

答案: 对

69. In 1688, Parliament passed the Bill of Rights which ensured that no laws could be made or tax bills passed without Parliament's assent.

答案: 错

70. Generally speaking, the party that wins the majority seats in Parliament has the opportunity to select the official head of the British state.

答案: 错

71. The real importance of the Monarch is largely traditional and symbolic.

答案：对

72. The center of power of the UK has shifted from the Monarch to the House of Lords since the Glorious Revolution in 1688.

答案：错

73. Cabinet members are chosen by the Prime Minister from various political parties in Parliament.

答案：错

74. The British Prime Minister is the leader of the opposition party in Parliament.

答案：错

75. The members of the House of Commons are appointed rather than elected.

答案：错

76. The British monarchy has never been interrupted throughout the history.

答案：错

是英国的但不是英联邦的

77. The British Parliament is the law-making body of the Commonwealth of Nations.

答案：错

78. American young children are provided few opportunities to make their own choices and express their own opinions.

答案：错

79. In the United States, children's preference is always respected, no matter what.

答案：错

80. By freedom, Americans mean the desire and the ability of all individuals to control their own destiny without outside interference from any organized authority, such as political, religious, business, financial or educational authority.

答案：对

81. "All men are created equal" is stated in the U.S. Constitution as a principle.

答案：错

82. In America, Those who "put on airs" or "show off" often end up being ridiculed.

答案：对

83. Americans make no distinctions among themselves despite their differences in wealth, level of education, race, gender or occupation.

答案：错

84. Americans are known to be highly-driven in their pursuit of achievements.

答案: 对

85. Americans are ready to take risks and therefore they are often described as risk-takers.

答案: 对

86. Generally speaking, Americans, whites and non-whites alike, tend to view their country as a promised land, even though that promise oftentimes gets broken.

答案: 对

87. "one person, one vote", expresses the principle of equal representation in voting. This slogan is used by advocates of democracy and political equality.

答案: 对

88. Americans measure one's success and achievement by looking at visible measurable attainments he has made, such as his house, car, job, etc.

答案: 对

89. Americans' notion of achievement, hard work, and materialism reflect that changes is often impossible to be made.

答案: 错

90. To most Americans, their physical and social environments are subject to human alteration or control

答案: 对

91. In a sense, fairness is dependent upon trust, and trust, in turn, is based on fairness. fairness and trust

答案: 对

92. American political scientist Francis Fukuyama regards Britain and Japan as low trust cultures.

答案: 错

93. When English people are making a journey by bus, they will do their best to find an empty seat, and if by train, an empty compartment.

答案: 对

94. In Britain, it is considered good manners to join in and appear to have a good time at a big social event organized by a company where one works. 积极参加团建好

答案: 对

95. The English do not think that a simple "good morning" or a cheery wave of the hand across the street is enough to show one's politeness to other people.

答案: 错

96. In Britain, politeness towards women is as much observed today as it was in the past.

答案: 错

97. Thanks to the enormous changes to the social, economic, and legal landscape in the late twentieth and early twenty-first centuries, the British are now far less class-conscious than before.

答案: 错

98. England, Scotland, and Wales are very much the same in their class divisions.

答案: 错

99. One of the obligations and responsibilities of the upper class in Britain was the duty to behave in conformity with one's rank.

答案: 对

100. For those who are genuinely "upper class", good manners are ^{max} of the utmost importance.

答案: 对

101. Members of the upper class often have a distinctive, mannered accent, which is delivered in a very precise manner.

答案: 对

102. The sports that middle-class Britons play usually call for expensive equipment, special clothing, or extensive training and practice, such as golf and tennis.

答案: 对

103. Working-class culture in Britain is mostly projected through the TV "soaps," which, in fact, are viewed by people from across the cultural spectrum.

答案: 对

104. The royal family is essential to the survival of the class system, because it defines one's position in society.

答案: 对

105. The English expression that "there is a time and a place for everything" suggests the importance of politeness.

答案: 错

106. Most Britons worked to gain a good social status.

答案: 错

107. To Americans, education does not merely function as a vehicle to pass on knowledge to children; it also serves the purpose of training students in industrial and high-tech skills.

well-rounded development

答案：错

108. The American educational system is based on the idea that all people should receive education from kindergarten to university. K-12

答案：错

109. If one works hard in the United States, he/she can get higher education at a state university or a community college, if not at Harvard or Yale.

答案：对

110. In order to make sure that all American children can actually "enjoy" access to education, including higher education, all fifty U.S. states have "compulsory attendance" laws, requiring young people to attend school only.

答案：错

no child left behind

111. In the American educational system, rigorous academic training tends to be given later than that in most other countries systems

答案：对

112. Since the implementation of Affirmative Action in American higher education, however, student demographic composition in colleges and universities has changed significantly.

答案：对

113. Following the "well-rounded people" principle, American students are free not to take those courses that they are not interested in or that appear to have little relationship to their career aspirations.

答案：错

114. Since America is a nation of immigrants, education in America has traditionally served the goal of Americanizing people from different parts of the world.

答案：对

115. "Rising in the world" is a fundamental part of the American Dream.

答案：对

116. The educational ladder concept is an almost perfect reflection of the American idea of social hierarchy based on birth and wealth.

答案：错

117. Most states have developed examinations intended to prevent students from graduating from secondary school without attaining prescribed test scores.

答案：对

118. Americans view a high general level of education as necessary in a democratic society.

答案：对

119. The social and economic mobility of Americans comes largely from the easy access to education that most Americans enjoy.

答案：对

120. In American elementary and secondary education, there are only private religious schools and elite private schools.

答案：错

121. Public schools in the US located in rich communities are far better funded than those located in poor areas.

答案：对

122. All American children are offered 12 years of compulsory public education.

答案：对

123. The history of education in England can be traced back to the Anglo-Saxons' occupation.

答案：错

124. Under the present law in Great Britain, the school leaving age is 18.

答案：错

125. In comparison with primary and secondary education, university education in Great Britain is less contentious for the general public.

答案：对

126. There are more universities in England than those combined in Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland.

答案：对

127. Further or continuing education in Britain is also known as post-college education.

答案：错

128. In general, British universities do not take extra-curriculum activities into serious consideration when determining admission of new students.

答案：对

129. At a British university, an English literature major will study nothing other than English literature during his/her three or four years of an undergraduate career.

答案：对

130. On their final year of courses at university, British students only have to submit a dissertation to earn their degrees.

答案：错

131. To Britons, primary education is about the delivery of syllabus. 教育大纲是一部分不是全部

答案：错

132. The British government has been responsible for education since the early 1800s.

答案：错

late

133. The National Curriculum is compulsory in both the state system and the independent system.

答案：错

134. When children finish their schooling at 16, they are required to take a national GCSE examination.

答案：对

135. Graduates from state schools in Britain have less favorable chance to enter famous universities than those from independent schools

答案：错

136. In Britain, most children start their schooling at the age of 5 in a kindergarten school.

答案：错

nursery

137. In the UK, public schools are public-funded.

答案：错

138. Secondary school students can attend college if their GCSE results are good enough.

答案：错

A-levels

139. Most American households now consist of two parents and their children.

答案：错

140. The high rate of divorce helps produce the changes in the traditional family.

答案：对

141. In America, parents are frequently told of their children's marriage plans before the couple decides to marry.

答案：错

142. Throughout the American experience, the value placed on marriage has always been determined by how happy the husband and wife make each other.

答案：错

怎么可能只由夫妻双方之间多快乐决定

143. Regarding marriage happiness, the majority of American women nowadays consider companionship to be more important than having economical support or the opportunity to have children.

答案：对

144. In each of the four stages of marriage relationship in the United States, wives have found themselves become more equal to their husbands and more powerful with the family.

答案：对

难易程度：中

145. During the 19th century, American wives were supposed to be completely submissive to their husbands.

答案：对

146. During the late 19th and early 20th centuries, opportunities for women to work outside the household increased, and subsequently, a great majority of wives chose to work outside the home.

答案：错

147. With the majority of married women holding jobs and making decent incomes, few marriages in America are now the husband-senior partner, wife-junior partner type.

答案：错

148. As recently as the late 1970s, over 50 percent of American women still believed that the interests of their husbands and children should be put above theirs.

答案：错

149. The general objective of child rearing for most American parents is to prepare their children to be able to manage their own lives by the time they graduate from college. 太片面了

答案：错

150. In order to turn out "well-rounded children", American parents will try to make sure that their children's schoolwork and after-school activities are kept in good balance.

答案：对

151. When Americans use the word family, they typically refer to a father, a mother and their children.

答案：对

152. "Alternative families" refer to family arrangements that differ from the traditional family pattern in the United States.

答案：对

153. When American parents think about their children's futures, they think about them mainly in terms of the jobs their children will get and how much income those jobs will produce.

答案：对

154. In Great Britain, it was not until the mid-twentieth century that the notion that men and women should live in different worlds in terms of work and public activities was challenged.

答案：对

155. Since the 1950s, a growing number of British women have found themselves in the workforce.

答案：对

156. In early modern Britain, women were equal to men in their legal and social status.

答案：错

157. According to the passage, it was not until the Industrial Revolution when men began to work in factories that women in Britain started to play the role of housewife.

答案：对

158. To the feminist, when men were labeled as "the providers operating in the public sphere" and women as "the caregivers operating within the private sphere," women were already put in an inferior and subordinate position.

答案：对

159. Although opportunities for women's education and employment have become more and more abundant, most British women have no aspirations to work outside of the home to achieve economic independence for themselves.

答案：错

160. In modern British families, household chores are equally shared between men and women.

答案：错

161. Generally speaking, families in Britain nowadays have become not only smaller, but also more secure.

答案：对

162. Regardless of all the changes in modern families, the husband still tends to spend most of his evenings and weekends with his workmates rather than with his family members.

答案：错

163. In British traditional families, children were supposed to be raised to be "seen and not heard".

答案：对

乖乖听话，少出声

164. Wash, cook, and clean was the daily routine of most British women before the 1970s.

答案：对

165. In the 21st century, starting a family, for most of the British, has become a choice rather than an obligation.

答案：对

166. Same sex couples in Britain want to be parents as well.

答案：对

167. Automation and more efficient production methods have left Americans with plenty of time on hand to enjoy their leisure life.

答案：对

168. Sports are a mirror of American life, partly because such American values as individual success and achievement are reflected in athletes.

答案：对

169. It is the unorganized rather than organized sports that reflect the basic values of American society, according to the passage.

答案：错

170. Of all the spectator sports in the United States, basketball is probably the most popular game among Americans.

答案：错

football

171. Like other English-speaking countries, America also uses sports activities as a way of teaching social values.

答案：对

172. Recreation is meant to be spontaneous and relaxing, but Americans, on the whole, tend to take it in all seriousness.

答案：对

173. Recreation in America has turned into an industry, generating a large sum of money for the people involved in it.

答案：对

174. Since Americans enjoy social life, there is usually a lot of social activity on Sun-day evening in the United States.

一般是周五周六，周日更多是在家里休息

答案：错

175. Sports in the US enjoy far more support than criticism

答案：对

176. As a result of the improvement of living standards, Americans have more money to spend for their leisure life

答案：对

177. Super Bowl Sunday has become almost a ~~national holiday~~ in America.

答案：对

178. Americans joggers will only stop jogging when the temperature changes dramatically.

答案：错

179. There are many clubs, classes, and contests in the US, but few leagues and conventions.

答案：错

180. Sunday morning is a time of religious worship for all American families.

答案：错

181. American students have three to four weeks summer vacations.

答案：错

182. American employees usually has paid vacations during the summer from the first week of June until the last week in August. 上班了怎么可能有带薪暑假

答案：错

183. When pubs introduced large-screen TVs for specific sports events, it was a huge hit and attracted numerous customers.

答案：错

184. Any hobby pursued by a Briton, no matter how minor it is, is accompanied by magazines.

答案：错

185. Book buying in Britain is stimulated by television.

答案：对

186. Much time previously devoted to reading is now spent, particularly by the young, on television.

答案：错

187. In Britain, through supporting a team, a spectator can express his personal and group identity.

答案：对

188. Traditionally, soccer players were of higher-social-status, while rugby players were looked down upon.

答案：错

189. Cricket is largely a gentlemen's game.

答案：错

全民运动

190. The degree of health consciousness, fitness, and dietary awareness is as high among the British young as among the Americans.

答案：错

光顾小房间

191. People patronized the snug because they preferred not to be seen in the public bar.

答案：对

192. Visitation of museums and art galleries also consumes much of British leisure time, especially for school children.

答案：对

193. Pantomimes are usually put on in theatres, village halls, and community centers of all sorts.

答案：对

194. The two major spectator sports in today's Britain are football and cricket.

答案：错

rugby

195. To most British people, some American sports are too masculine and aggressive.

答案：错

具有男子气概的

196. For British people, for many spectators sport is a way of expressing personal and group identity.

答案：对

197. British socializing took place in the pub or club.

答案：对

198. In the United States, the Social Security system is contributory, but the Welfare system is non-contributory.

答案：对

199. Unemployment benefits in America can last as long as necessary, i.e. Until the jobless person gets employed.

答案：错

200. States vary from each other in the amount of money they spend on their welfare programs.

答案：对

201. By "workfare", it means work plus welfare, i.e., welfare recipients are expected to work while still on welfare or take some job training programs to prepare themselves for employment in the near future.

答案：对

4、Religious organizations and private foundations play a very prominent role in American voluntary services.

答案：对

202. Before the introduction of Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards, food stamp recipients could use these stamps to buy food in any shop at a normal price.

答案：错

203. The greatest part of the Gates' Foundation goes to the fight against such diseases as polio, malaria and AIDS in and outside the U.S.A.

答案：对

204. All American employees and their families are normally insured for health care through private insurance plans.

答案：错

205. Americans realized the importance and necessity of social services before the Great Depression of the 1930s.

答案：错

206. Since American politics operates under the principle of federalism, each state has the right to devise and organize its own welfare programs.

答案：对

207. The main purposes of voluntary services are to complement and supplement social services provided by the public and private sectors.

答案：对

208. As a nation that emphasizes both physical and social mobility, home ownership is not so important for most Americans since they are contradicted the American value of freedom and individualism.

答案：错

209. The strongest opposition to public housing comes from the long-cherished value in the American creed, i.e., individualism.

答案：对 信条

210. The majority of American homeowners prefer to live in suburban areas.

答案：对

211. Voluntary services are not so important crucial, because they are not financially sufficient enough to provide accessible sources of help people when needed.

答案：错

212. The Beveridge Report was the result of quick and immediate changes in the attitudes of politicians and the British public toward social welfare.

答案：错

213. In Great Britain, social security mainly refers to social insurance and income maintenance.

答案：对

母性

214. Maternity Benefits include only Statutory Maternity Pay or r Maternity Allowance.

答案：错

215. Pregnant women or women who have given baby get Statutory Maternity Pay from the local government. from employers

答案：错

216. Most people living in the UK can claim Child Benefit for their children.

答案：对

217. Under no circumstance can British parents claim Child Benefit once their child reaches the age of 19. 20

答案：错

218. Foreign visitors in Britain have to pay twice as much as Britons do when visiting the hospital for medical treatment in the event of an accident or an emergency.

答案：错

free

一致的

219. Since the establishment of the NHS, it has received unanimous approval and support from all Britons across the country.

答案：对

220. When Britons need medical attention, they usually go and see their practitioner, or local family practitioner first when the case is not an emergency.

答案：对

221. Britons are quite satisfied with the medical treatment they receive in hospitals here throughout the UK, because there is little variation in the standard of care and cleanliness of hospitals.

答案：错

辅助的

222. Many of the doctors, nurses, and ancillary staff in the NHS are from Commonwealth or other countries.

答案：对

223. Housing in Britain can be divided into two categories, namely private and council properties.

答案：错

224. Council properties are free of charge in Britain.

答案：错

225. The detached house is the most expensive one in Britain.

答案：对